FCA can stand for... Find, Compare, Assist

Find - Funeral Consumers Alliance of San Antonio (FCASATX) finds an affordable price for funeral services and contracts with funeral homes so members will have access to reasonable prices on funerals and cremations.

Compare - FCASATX prepares a mortuary survey in odd years and cemetery survey in even years to let members compare services throughout San Antonio.

Assist - FCASATX assists you in becoming an informed, self-sufficient consumer to pick and choose the goods and services you want and can afford.

FCA has been around awhile...

Funeral Consumers Alliance of San Antonio, Texas, Inc. is an all-volunteer, non-profit 501(c)(3) educational and service organization, founded in 1948. Our urgent individual counseling is available to individuals and families who need to plan a low-cost funeral for the imminently dying via our on-call telephone line (210) 341-2213 answered 8a-8p. Our non-profit organization empowers you and your family to choose uncomplicated, meaningful, affordable after death arrangements. We are affiliated with the national Funeral Consumers Alliance, Inc.

FCASATX contracts with select San Antonio funeral homes offering the lowest pricing for funeral services, both cremation and traditional burial.

What FCA provides...

Presentations to churches, senior centers, and other groups who invite us to meet with them to outline what we have to offer our members.

Mortuary and cemetery price surveys allow consumers to compare costs among most of the area funeral providers. You can view them online at funeralssatx.org.

low-cost funerals. A general membership meeting is held each year in March to educate our members and answer questions in a large forum.

FCASATX was originally known as the San Antonio Memorial Society but our name was changed to reflect our goal to educate the consumer on end-of-life planning. The organization is completely run by volunteers providing information and counseling support to help you navigate the funeral process with confidence. We encourage you to preplan rather than prepay.
